OVERVIEW

Larry Gottlieb is the managing shareholder at Betts Patterson Mines, and has been practicing law in the Seattle area since 1991. Specializing in insurance coverage law, Mr. Gottlieb works primarily for the insurance industry throughout the Pacific Northwest as an advisor, trial lawyer, and appellate advocate in the areas of first-party coverage, general liability coverage, professional liability coverage, and extra-contractual liability claims. He also represents policyholders in the defense of various types of complex liability and damages claims.

REPRESENTATIVE CASES

Appellate Decisions:

- Siena Del Lago Condominium Assoc. v. Mt. Hawley, No 13-36005 (9th Cir. April 2016) (no coverage was afforded under our client's Difference in Conditions policy for property damages allegedly caused by faulty workmanship and wind-driven rain)
- Oregon Mutual Ins. Co., v. Rain City Pizza, LLC, 2013 WL 150173 (Wash. Ct. App. Division I - January 2013) (the Statutory Distribution of Materials exclusion broadly applies to bar coverage for the class action against Papa John's International Inc., franchisees even though a third party carried out the challenged text messaging.)
- Certain Underwriters at Lloyd's London v. Travelers Cas. Co. of America, 161 Wn. App. 265 (2011) (the $10,000,000 in excess flood insurance provided by Lloyds was triggered as soon as our client, Travelers admitted liability for its $1,000,000 flood sublimit.)
- NCF Financial, Inc. v. St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Company, 2007 WL 512545 (Wash. Ct. App. Division I - February 2007) (no property insurance coverage was afforded based on the unambiguous terms of the "Disappearance-inventory loss" exclusion.)
- City of Oak Harbor v. St. Paul Mercury Insurance Company, 159 P.3d 422 (Wash. App. 2007) (the City's claim for property insurance coverage for damage to the City's wastewater treatment lagoon liner was excluded based on the standard "faulty workmanship" exclusion in our clients policy.)

- NCF Financial, Inc. v. Webforia et al., 2006 WL 2244328 (Wash. Ct. App. Division I – August 2006) (no property insurance coverage was afforded based on the unambiguous terms of the "Disappearance-inventory loss" exclusion.)
- Monarch Machine & Tool Co. Inc., v USF&G, 2003 WL 22311368 (Wash. Ct. App. Division III - Oct. 2003) (the suit limitation clause in our client's first-party property insurance contract barred the policyholder's claim.)
- Puget Sound Energy v. Certain Underwriters at Lloyds et al., 138 P.3d 1068 (Wash. App. 2006) (the underlying claim could not reach Pennsylvania Lumbermens excess level of coverage by application of the "horizontal exhaustion" rule.)
- Mike M. Johnson v. TIG Ins. Co., 2000 WL 122688 (Wash. Ct. App. Division I - Feb. 2000) (the contractor's claim based on its alleged failure to follow the construction plans did not constitute an "occurrence.")
- Louisiana Pacific v. ASARCO, 5 F.3d 431 (9th Cir. 1993) (CERCLA does not preempt state corporate capacity statutes.)
